

Gifts of God

by INA LADD BROWN

Did you ever see the sun rise,
Tinting all the world with gold?
Did you ever watch a rosebud's
Petals tenderly unfold?

Have you ever heard a wood thrush
In its ecstasy of song
Or felt the peace of twilight
Working all day long?

Have you ever admired beauty
In a sunset's wondrous hues
Or the mystery of the ocean
With its changing greens and blues?

Did you ever feel the clinging
Of a baby's tiny hand?
Have you ever loved so deeply
That the earth seemed to expand?

From the time when first you waken
Till you're placed beneath the sod,
Can you contemplate these wonders
And doubt there is a God?
