Message from the Pastor's Desk

I was so blessed with our worship service Sunday morning! I want to congratulate Dana on a fine message and our youth/young adults on heart warming music!

We welcome April Long and her children Kody (a student at Surry Community College), Justin (a ninth grader at Starmount High School) and Bailey (Kindergarten at Boonville School.). Kody and Justin are candidates for Baptism and April comes by letter from a Baptist Church.

I remember my first Sunday in Prayer Partners at BBC. The late Larry Hutchens had a prayer request that our Lord send families with children. I have heard that request spoken many times in Prayer Partners! Thank you Lord for sending us families like April's!

Let's not take for granted that the people we meet are involved in church. Invite them. You could be sitting beside them in church one day! God bless!

Origins of Father's Day

The “Mother’s Day” we celebrate today has its origins in the peace-and-reconciliation campaigns of the post-Civil War era. During the 1860s, at the urging of activist Ann Reeves Jarvis, one divided West Virginia town celebrated “Mother’s Work Days” that brought together the mothers of Confederate and Union soldiers.

The campaign to celebrate the nation’s fathers did not meet with the same enthusiasm—perhaps because, as one florist explained, “fathers haven’t the same sentimental appeal that mothers have.”

On July 5, 1908, a West Virginia church sponsored the nation’s first event explicitly in honor of fathers, a Sunday sermon in memory of the 362 men who had died in the previous December’s explosions at the Fairmont Coal Company mines in Monongah, but it was a one-time commemoration and not an annual holiday.

The next year, a Spokane, Washington, woman named Sonora Smart Dodd, one of six children raised by a widower, tried to establish an official equivalent to Mother’s Day for male parents. She went to local churches, the YMCA, shopkeepers and government officials to drum up support for her idea, and she was successful: Washington State celebrated the nation’s first statewide Father’s Day on June 19, 1910.

Slowly, the holiday spread. In 1916, President Wilson honored the day by using telegraph signals to unfurl a flag in Spokane when he pressed a button in Washington, D.C. In 1924, President Calvin Coolidge urged state governments to observe Father’s Day.

Today, the day honoring fathers is celebrated in the United States on the third Sunday of June .

If you have a living father, be sure to visit him or at least give him a phone call on his “special” day. Many know that the day comes too quickly when you will not have that opportunity here on earth but you can always pay tribute to your father in your heart and in other ways.

Congratulations to Dana Blankley who was named to the Dean’s List at ASU for the 2019 Spring semester.
